Scholarship awards are made possible through generous gifts from alumni, faculty, staff and friends of the College. A note of appreciation helps foster further support from our benefactors which, in turn, helps students like you for years to come. If you are selected to receive a scholarship, you will be expected to prepare a thank you letter or hand-written note to the donor of the scholarship you are receiving.

As of May 12, 2015, Utah Senate Bill 253 requires any University of Utah scholarship, tuition waiver, or any other form of financial aid recipients to undergo certification of lawful U.S. presence.

Any student who receives a scholarship, fellowship, or other privately funded financial aid administered by the University of Utah is required by state law to certify that they are eligible to receive the scholarship as a U.S. Citizen or a citizen of another country who is lawfully present in the U.S. The student's status will also be verified with the Department of Homeland Security.

By selecting either "U.S. Citizen" or "Lawful Present, Non-Citizen of the U.S." and by signing the application below, you are certifying under penalty of perjury that you are either a U.S. Citizen or a citizen of another country that is lawfully present in the U.S. You understand that your status and eligibility for financial aid/ scholarship within the U.S. will be verified through the Department of Homeland Security prior to an award of aid. This federal agency may have the legal right to share this information with other government agencies.

Please indicate Citizenship Status:

U.S. Citizen

Lawfully Present, Non-Citizen of the U.S.

I certify that the information on this application is true and complete. Further, I understand that consideration for this scholarship may be denied if any information is found to be incomplete or inaccurate.
